Peace Voter Update!

In May, the Coalition for Peace Action (CFPA) sent Peace Voter questionnaires, which ask Congressional candidates about their stands on various peace issues, to every Congressional candidate in the region. Based on questionnaire responses, along with voting records, and public positions, we will compile Peace Voter Guides that will be on the CFPA website, distributed by organizations and individuals, and run as signature ads in newspapers.

CFPA has begun offering Candidate Briefings on our issues to major party candidates in the 7th and 8th districts, key swing areas in the Philadelphia suburbs. On May 22, we held a Briefing with George Badey, a candidate in the 7th district. To see a photo and report on that Briefing, and to check on campaign updates, and/or to become involved in this high impact project, visit the Peace Voter section of our website, www.peacecoalition.org!
